Dear Rakesh,

Congratulations! In recognition of Indianlife Foods' dedication to helping animals, we're thrilled to present you with PETA's 2021 Libby Award for Favorite Vegan Chips for your Masala Chips. With these delicious, cruelty-free snacks, Indianlife has had a positive impact on the lives of many animals.

Our annual Libby Awards—as in animal liberation—recognize companies, brands, and individuals for their commitment to animals. Winners were chosen based on three factors: the nominees' enthusiasm for animal rights, the interest shown by the nominees' fans, and the number of votes received. For more information about the Libby Awards and to view the other winners and nominees, please visit PETA.org/LibbyAwards.

Thank you for making compassionate choices and for helping to create a kinder world for all sentient beings.

Sincerely,

Megan Rondeau
